T3 PORTABLE COMMUNICATION

Portable and reliable communication devices
connecting multiple audiences.

T-3 Portable Communications Packages are compact size, light weight, and self-powered. Providing the same basic power, voice, video, data, and radio capabilities as the T-2 system, the T-3 package caters to a much larger audience, supporting 10 to 150 users in a single geographic area. T-3 provides access to phone and data services where cellular support or wireless networking services are otherwise unavailable.
